MCGILL--QUEEN'S GAME PROMISES GREAT ACTION

Red and White Team Will Complete Training To-day.

BIG ROOTERS' CLUB.

Tri-color Will Have Strengthened Squad in Saturday's Game.

To-morrow afternoon the McGill Senior Rugby squad will be seen for the first time this season on its own grounds in an Intercollegiate fixture, when it takes the field against the Queen's aggregation for a game which promises to be one of the hardest-fought battles put up by the two rivals in several years. Since its defeats at the hands of McGill and Varsity earlier in the season, the Tri-color line-up has been materially changed, and when the Presbyterians appear on Saturday they will be prepared to go the limit in an effort to break into the winning columns.

No announcement has been made yet of the players who will start for the Red and White against the Tri-color, but it is certain that when the team takes the field on Saturday there will be several new faces among the senior players. Flanagan will not be at his usual position at centre half, and either Philipotts or Carroll will fill in the vacancy. "Flin" made his first appearance since being confined to hospital after the Varsity game, when he showed up on the side-lines at the practice yesterday. Both Carroll and Philipotts have been going good at centre, and can be counted on to jump into the kicking game with credit.

Ambridge is still taking work-outs easy, and in all probability will be replaced by Murphy in the Queen's game. "Silk" has been showing pretty snappy stuff at inside right this week, and seems a likely candidate for a regular berth on the line. Centre scrimmage is another position that has the rail-birds guessing for the game with the Tri-color. Don Baillie, who starred at that point against the Blue and White last week, has not been working on the line during the past few days. "Bones" Little and MacGregor being entrusted chiefly with heeling the pigskin back, and it is possible one of them will be going against Queen's on Saturday. Gordie Ross looks like the choice for quarter, while it is questionable if "Boo" Anderson will be found at flying wing. It being possible that Rutherford will be shot into this position and "Boo" sent back to the half line. Whichever way the squad is lined up by Shag after to-night's (Continued on Page 4.)

TENNIS MEN ARE HOLDING MEETING

This Afternoon At 5.15 In Strathcona Hall.

There will be a general meeting of the Tennis Club this afternoon in Strathcona Hall, at 5.15, for the purpose of electing officers for next year. All those interested in the affairs of the club are requested to attend.

The Intercollegiate team will meet at Notman's Studio at 4 o'clock for the purpose of having group photographs taken for the Annual. This should allow plenty of time to get up to the club meeting at the Hall afterwards. It is customary to take the picture of the team in uniform, so members will kindly bring their tennis outfits.

The club tournament has been badly held up, due to the poor weather which we have had lately. There are still three games in the second round to be played, and several in the third before the semi-finals are reached. It looks as though the tournament would be uncompleted unless members show a great deal more pep in playing off their matches. The executive realize that it is hard for men to get out early to complete these games, but urge everybody to try to finish things up.

ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING AT CERCLE MEET

Prof. Le Bidoit of Laval Was Chief Speaker.

EXCELLENT DINNER.

Professors Emphasized Importance Of Cercle Francaise.

The first seance of the Cercle Francaise was held last night in the dining hall of the Union. Sharp on schedule, the members filed in at 8 o'clock, where a delicious dinner was served under the direction of the management of the Union Cafeteria.

Following the passing around of the coffee, the president of the Cercle Francaise, M. H. Franklin, opened the second part of the programme in a well worded address of welcome to the new members of the society. The speaker emphasized the importance of a knowledge of French, especially for those who live in the Province of Quebec, where a knowledge of French and English is essential.

The minutes of the last seance of the Cercle last session were then read. The secretary announced the members of this year's executive as:

Hon. President—Prof. de Roure.
President—M. H. Franklin.
Vice-president—G. H. Phillimore.
Secretary—F. H. Walter.
Treasurer—D. Cowan.

Professor de Roure, of the Modern Languages Department, in the course of a few well-chosen remarks reiterated the welcome extended by the president to the new members and of the necessity of a knowledge of French in any sphere of life. The only manner in which a complete understanding of a race may be obtained is by a knowledge of its language. The speaker laid stress upon the efforts made by French people to learn the language spoken by their English associates, and exhorted his hearers to reciprocate by endeavoring in every manner possible to learn to have a conversant knowledge of French.

The principal speaker of the evening, Professor Le Bidoit, of the Languages Department of the Université de Montreal, was then presented. Mr. Le Bidoit is the author of several works, relevant to the spirit of the French people, which have gained no small distinction. In the course of a spirited address which epitomized the learning of the speaker, Prof. Le Bidoit explained the attitude of the French people during the Great War. Many people held the opinion that France would be overwhelmed, destroyed by the hosts of foes which opposed her. France's strength throughout the world struggle lay not so much in the consciousness of the (Continued on Page 2.)

SMOKERS.

At the last meeting of the Students' Council the "Daily" was instructed to impress upon the student body that, owing to the limited capacity of the Union, it will be extremely difficult to hold smokers in the lounge room of that building. Executives which contemplate holding functions of this nature are requested not to make application for a date preceding Nov. 6th, after which the grill room, which is at present used for the training table, will be available for smokers.

Most Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED

Next Meeting Wednesday—U.S. Election Results Will Be Received.

Last week the American Club of McGill held its most enthusiastic meeting of the past few years. About thirty members turned out and, although the promised cats were not in evidence, the evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

The meeting was called to order at 7.30 p.m. by last year's vice-president, and the election of officers carried out. Some discussion arose on the subject of an Honorary President, as there were several candidates in the field. But it was finally agreed that the club could well afford two honorary officials and Dr. Oertel, of the Faculty of Medicine, and Dr. Porter, head of the Mining Department, were chosen. These men have both shown a keen interest in the club, Dr. Porter especially having enthusiastically attended the functions of the club since its inception. It is felt that with such honorary members the activities of the year cannot be unsuccessful.

Then the executive of the club were elected for this year. Knowlton, Med. '23, was elected President; Livingstone, Sci. '20, vice-president; Katzman, Med. '22, secretary; and Sherwood, Sci. '22, treasurer.

The subject and problem of future meetings was then taken up. It was decided not to plan any regular time of meeting to be set down as a rule, but rather to leave it to the spirit of each meeting as to when the next would be. And while on this subject, it is planned to hold a meeting on Wednesday evening next in the Union, to discuss election returns and to entertain a distinguished guest or so and the honorary presidents, if they be able to attend.

The executive was asked to make inquiry as to the Annual Thanksgiving Dinner, the general feeling being that that event this year would be the most successful for a long time. The success of such a function does not depend on the brilliancy of the speeches nor the excellence of the menu, but on the good feeling and comradeship of those present. Everyone knows that a meal among friends is much more enjoyable than one where hardly anyone knows anyone (Continued on Page 2)

JUNIORS WILL PLAY BISHOPS'

McGill Third Team Leaves For Lennoxville This Afternoon.

Eighteen members of the Junior Red and White squad will leave at 4.15 this afternoon from the Grand Trunk station bound for Lennoxville, where they will take on the champion Bishops College team in the first of a series of home and home games for honors in the Junior Q.R.F.U. The third team will line up against the Bishops aggregation on Saturday morning, and will play the return game at the McGill Stadium next Saturday.

Yesterday afternoon the thirds put in a final practice in preparation for the game, and for a considerable part of the time were pitted against the senior squad. With the same team playing to-morrow as has decisively beaten both Macdonald and Loyola in this section of the league, the Juniors will take the field against Bishops confident of getting away to a good start in the two matches with the Lennoxville aggregation. Captain Eddie Crain will most likely start the following men in the game: Halves—Pierce, Williamson, Whittall; flying wing—Mallison; quarter—Crain; outsiders—Easson and Schwartzman; middles—Emo and Grant; insides—Puddicombe and Foss; scrumage—Evans, Reid and Johnston; spares—Matthews, Mitchell, Marber, Dione and Donagan.

"EVERYBODY OUT"

The slogan of the oft referred-to "thundering thousand" is: "Everybody out." As far as the hundred odd present at the last rooters practice are concerned it was lived up to. But where were the other nine hundred? For a university the size of McGill the showing made on Wednesday last was hardly short of pitiable. Even those present, though striving to do their best, seemed overawed by the sense of their fewness. They lacked the enthusiastic spirit exhibited by the Rooters' Clubs of other years. Many of the yells and parodies seemed to fall absolutely flat. Something must be done to correct this, for it would be far better to go to the games without any attempt at rooting than to make us ashamed of ourselves before a visiting team. And the thought of no rooting for the team is intolerable. Therefore what must we do to remedy conditions? What are the real troubles of the Rooters' Club?

First and foremost the men must turn up at the practices. If the yells are not thoroughly learnt beforehand it is very little use trying them out at a game. Attending the practices just often enough to buy tickets at reduced prices for the games is not the spirit that should be shown by McGill men. The teams need our support. They have given all they can. It is our duty to back them up to the full extent of our powers. The way in which we can best accomplish this is by cheering them on in their games. It is a proven fact that the united cheers of a group of men materially aids their team in its struggle for victory. And proper rooting cannot be done without practice.

As for the yells and parodies themselves—never has the Club had so large a quantity to choose from. But that is one of the reasons why practically none are well learnt. If they would content themselves with a few good ones, and particularly yells, for parodies as a rule do not go well in the open air, they would soon find an improvement. Great care must be taken in the selection to choose only those yells that have a good rhythm, which class does not include such an one as that which starts: "Pep—Pep," and those parodies whose words correspond to the words of the original song, not such ones as that "butchery" of "Alouette." When the men get yells and songs that go along with a natural swing, their interest is greatly multiplied, and of course their shouting. This defect is one of the greatest shown in the Rooters' Club, but fortunately is one which can be very easily corrected.

The time left for these suggestions to be put into force is very short. But if everyone will work together during this time, great results may be achieved. For the sake of Old McGill, let it be truly said that the slogan of the Rooters' Club is: "Everybody out."

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED BY AMERICANS

The meeting next week is to be considered as a chance for the fellows to get to know each other before they meet on November 25th.

A committee was then appointed to interview the Union Authorities to see if two American newspapers might be placed in the Union reading room. In view of the increased number of American citizens here this year the club felt that the New York Times and Boston Post might be included among the journals already to be found in the racks of the reading room.

Lane, Med. '25, late of Holy Cross, is to hold down the job of handling the write-ups of the club in the "Daily." The meeting adjourned a little before nine as some of the fellows wished to go over to the Engineering Institute to see the film of McGill which is to be used in the campaign. But afterwards many stayed to talk of football and college activities "across the line." The none of us would leave McGill, still we are interested in the affairs of our friends and their college back home.

A general wish was expressed that the big universities of Canada might take up the American rugby game and play matches with the big colleges and universities of the States. This, it is felt, would greatly add to the interest taken in football here, and would bring to old McGill fresh laurels.

In closing let it be urged that every American at McGill, student or instructor, turn out next Wednesday night. More notice will be given of the exact room and the other arrangements made. About thirty were present last night and discussion on activities was lively and interesting, but there are many more Americans here and they are expected to turn out. This club can be made, as it should be, the liveliest organization of its kind at the university. It is up to each individual American to do his best to boost. The officers, as the servants of the club, will do their utmost and all the members must do the same and help.

Remember then, next Wednesday night, in the Union an election talk, talks from some visitors, and a positively guaranteed feed.

BANDSMEN ALL UP TO HALL TO-DAY

This Year's Band a Positive Success.

ENERGETIC LEADER.

Rooters Together With Band Will Start Final Practice At 5.15.

The band will all turn out at Strathcona Hall to-night for their final practice before the Queen's game. The bandmen will go to the Union and get their instruments and be on hand at Strathcona Hall so as the practice of Rooters can fire the first salvo of songs and yells at 5.15 p.m. sharp.

This year's band is positively the best aggregation of artists yet to appear under the name of Rooters' Band. Each and every man of them knows his instrument to perfection, and the timbre and quality of their vibrations are what a musical genius would call "marvellous." The leader, "Chub" LeBarron, sure tears an awful hole in a sheet of music, not to mention the other lads on the cornets and bass horns, who find the keys for a melodious one every time. LeBarron, on the slide trombone, played six weeks in "Il Troubadour," and should have his old trombone overhauled when the big days come. Art Riddle, on the bass horn, almost choked on the mouthpiece at last practice. He has cut out cigarettes, and claims he should have enough wind to blow the big-keyed megaphone from now on. The bass drummer simply chops wood on his parchment tom-tom, while the lads on the kettles claim they never hit a bum note.

Anyhow, to-morrow will see them under way, and the combined practice of rooters plus band will be an exhibition worth a buck to see.

Bandmen, be on time, and see that your sound producers are vibrating synchronously before the rah-rah gang set the pill in motion. All up. Practice starts at 5.15 sharp, and we're off to the races again.

STRATHCONA HALL ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Dr. Adams Will Be Present—Interesting Programme For All Students.

Students have more to think about in this first month of the college year than at any other time. After they have chosen their courses, arranged their lectures, found a place to live, and that worry is past, their minds are diverted to less serious topics. The new men take their first plunge into social life—some few in athletic life—the older men gather in again the broken strings of activity. Just now we can look on the sphere of sport. The tennis championship is won; the track and football hang in the balance; soon will come the basketball and hockey.

Surrounded in a maze of interests, we have little patience with anything new. We do not think in the excitement of the moment that weightier questions are to be considered. But here is one.

On Sunday evening at 8.30 o'clock there will be a meeting in Strathcona Hall. So far, we have enjoyed "sings" at this hour. Next Sunday the "sing" will take a new form. There will be music and singing. Besides that, there will be two or three short talks and discussion.

There is a very important question before the students at this time. A difficult task confronts them. The question arises: Can a student Y.M.C.A. cope with the problem? Other colleges are changing their organization to suit their peculiar needs. McGill has peculiar needs. Would a Student Christian Association meet those needs?

We want an organization in which every Christian Student can take part. There are more students of McGill interested in work of service than are showing that interest now. Here is an opportunity.

Dean Adams will be present. He knows—perhaps as no other man in the university—the history and achievements of the present Y.M.C.A. There will also be a representative of both the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A.

Many students know little or nothing of the new Student movement. These are the men and women to whom a special invitation is extended.

For every one who comes with his mind open there is interest. It may be so arranged that those who have something vital to say will be given a chance.

At any rate, let nothing stand in your way. After Church, Come to Strathcona Hall.

Wesleyan Notes

Very keen interest is manifested this year in sport among the Wesleyans. At the very outset a meeting was held to consider the question of affiliating ourselves with the University in this respect. Last year McGill offered the Theological students the full privileges of the University activities, provided the universal fee was paid. It was so late in the season when the arrangements were completed that the proposition had to be abandoned. This year, however, the question was taken up with vigor at the opening of College activities. It was unanimously decided that all Theological students should pay this fee and quality, providing suitable arrangements could be made for the use of the campus and gym floor.

Wesleyan has been most fortunate this year in securing the services of Mr. Robertson, of St. John, N.B., as physical instructor. Mr. Robertson has had considerable experience in Y.M.C.A. physical activities, and is a competent instructor. He is under the supervision of Mr. Lamb, and all Wesleyan students, as well as a number of Arts, Science and Medicine take physical instruction in Wesleyan classes. For those who are keen on early rising, four half-hour classes are arranged per week. For those who prefer to have a little extra snooze in the morning, classes are provided in the afternoon, two one-hour classes weekly. A keen interest is manifested in these classes.

Basketball has started off with a rush. A House League of all the residents of the institution has been formed. It consists of seven teams, and a lively time is assured in this line of sport. At the opening game of the series on Monday night the Principal was present to face off the ball. A number of interested spectators cheered both sides. Whirlwinds had the better of Canucks to the extent of 56 to 23.

Football is another feature of Wesleyan activities. The past two weeks some practice games have been held on the campus between seven and eight in the morning. On Tuesday morning a game was played with the Presbyterian brethren, in which the good brothers proved themselves the better kickers, winning by a score of 3-0.

It is hoped to enter a team in McGill Interfaculty series, and plans are under way for the formation of a hockey team.

An excellent spirit is manifested in this institution this year. Several Wesleyans who contributed to the life of College last year graduated, and their loss is much felt. But their place is filled by new life, and we look forward to a pleasant and successful year.

Zzzzzzz... Bang! WESLEYAN.

OXONIANS CROW OVER CAMBRIDGE

Women Allowed To Enter Oxford Halls.

Once again Oxonians are crowing over their sister, rival, institution at Cambridge. Cambridge is having a struggle over the proposed admission of women to the university. Oxford has settled down to the fact, and some of the women students are here settling down also. They have even settled upon their academic costume, even to that difficult question of the headgear. They are to meet on the same terms as men, study the same subjects, and even, in some instances, attend the same classes. Cambridge is equally divided among its syndics as to whether women shall be admitted on the same terms as men or whether a new and independent university, formed of the existing women's colleges, should be created. The advocates of full admission, however, draw the line at women becoming proctors. The decision at Cambridge has been postponed for the Senate of the university, so that it seems more than probable that the first women graduates will go forth from Oxford.

But Oxford has gone even one better. The gates of natural science have been stormed by woman and there is now at the Clarendon Observatory in the Parks a woman, neatly garbed in a suit similar to a gymnasium tunic, who is in charge during the absence of the regular professor.

The first examinations under the new regulations, under which Greek is no longer compulsory, are now being held. According to the old scheme candidates for responsions were required to offer both Greek and Latin, but under the new system they need offer only one of the classical languages, and may take a modern language in place of the other classical language. The number taking the new regulations is 142 men and 26 women and those taking the old stated subjects include 86 men and 24 women.

The Royal Commissioners appointed to consider the applications made by the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, for financial assistance from the State are now meeting. They are appointed to inquire into the financial resources of the universities and of the colleges and halls therein, into the administration and

COMPETITION.

A complimentary ticket will be awarded to the student who submits the best drawing for the Junior Dance Programme.

Contributions may be left with Bob at the Union, c.o. the Junior Dance Committee.

PHYSICAL SOCIETY.

Mr. J. H. Tringham will speak on "Anti Submarine Equipment" this afternoon in the Physics Building, at ten minutes past five. All interested are very cordially invited to attend.

A meeting of the Foreign Students' Club will be held to-day at 5.15 p.m. in Room "B," Strathcona Hall. All foreign students invited to attend.

BIBLE STUDY SUPPER.

Bible Study Supper at Strathcona Hall at six p.m. Monday next. All up.

UNION DANCE.

The first informal dance of the season will be held in the Union this evening. The programme will start at eight-fifteen sharp. Sixty-five tickets are still available.

ROOTERS' BANNER.

Will the student who borrowed the Rooters' Club banner last spring please return same at once to the secretary of the Students' Council, J. A. Lalanne.

FACULTY OF MEDICINE FOOTBALL.

Is the Faculty of Medicine going to be represented by a football team selected from its First Year. Two practices were announced in the "Daily" at different times but no one but First Year men turned out. There will be a practice at 4 p.m. to-day on the old Campus, and if nobody else turns out the team will be selected from the First Year to play Science to-morrow morning.

COAT LOST.

Will the gentleman who took by mistake a light brown gabardine coat from the Union at 4.30 p.m. on Thursday kindly return it to the Porter of the Union?

CAFETERIA CLOSED.

An informal dinner will be given Saturday night to the Queens team and as a result the Cafeteria will be closed Saturday night for tea.

McGILL RIFLE CLUB.

The club will hold a shoot on Saturday afternoon, in order to get into shape for the oncoming inter-year shoot. Years '21 and '24 have several good shots so that the men of '22 and '23 had better come out to practice if they want their class to make a good showing. Meet at the Arts Building at 12.15.

SCIENCE RUGBY.

There will be a practice of the Science Rugby team to-day at 4.15 on the old Campus. All men who play football are asked to turn out and prepare for the game with Medicine on Saturday morning.

ORCHESTRA.

An important meeting of the Orchestra will be held in the Union to-day at 5 p.m. to discuss urgent business. It will be of brief duration and all members are requested to attend.

ETHYDROCHLORIDE.

The scourge pneumonia long has held its sway.
But soon we hope its name will cease to shock us;
For we behold the "rosy dawn of day,"
Which sees the finish of the pneumococcus.

But, Moynroth, had I your wondrous skill
For combination, I feel sure I'd Dope out some shorter name to fill
The bill
Than ethyldrochlopreinhydrochloride.

application of these resources, into the government of the universities, and into the relations of the colleges and halls to the universities and to each other, and to make recommendations. Questions have already been sent to the bursars of colleges and others, to which answers have been given in writing, but the commissioners are sitting in private and nothing will be known of the proceedings until the report is published.

In the "town" as distinct from the "gown," equal progression is being made. The corporation set out to collect £170,000 by means of housing bonds to meet the cost of erecting new houses on the eastern side of the city, and although the subscription lists have been opened only a few weeks, already £150,000 has been collected.

Correspondence

The "Daily" is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length.

Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office—that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY. No communications will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

DENTAL NOTICE.

As president of the Dental Undergrad, I am very sorry to inform the members of the Society that it will be impossible to hold the Dental Dance to which we were all looking forward with such great pleasure.

The Social Committee has decided that due to the number of requests for dances put forward by the various organizations that they will be unable to grant any dances over and above the regular college functions. I am sure that everyone will see the impossibility of granting to one club or faculty what cannot be given to all.

The regular meeting of the Dental Undergrad Society will be held early in November. Dr. Thornton, of Toronto, a very noted man in the prosthetic line, will be in town, and if possible he will address the meeting. More definite notices will follow shortly.

G. S. VEITH,
Pres. Dent. Undergrad.

MARITIME MEN WILL HOLD FEED

Union Grill Room To Be Scene Of Top-Hole Time, Nov. 4th.

The evening of Thursday, November 4th will be one of jollification for the boys from the provinces by the sea when they get together in the grill room of the Union for their initial social event of the year.

For the past few days nothing very much has been heard from the Maritime Club. The members of the executive, however, have been going about quietly making arrangements for the above-mentioned affair, and are putting forth every effort to begin the season's activities with such a bumper night as will long be remembered by those who have the good fortune to attend.

In addition to the usual "pipe of peace," and the "cigarette a la Macharino," there will be the best of eats the Cafeteria can provide. Enough said! Think of it, boys. Music and songs, snappy speeches and recitations, the tobacco you like to smoke and the eats you like to eat. In order to be there, the one qualification is that you are a Maritime.

It is earnestly hoped that every Maritime man at McGill will reserve Thursday evening, November 4th, and be present to meet his fellows from the East, members of the various faculties and prominent business men from the city. In addition to the above, they will be giving their support to the executive, who are spending a great amount of time and energy in making this the greatest success possible, and planning other future activities.

All on deck, then, boys.
The Place—Grill Room of Union.
The Time—8.30 p.m., Thursday, November 4th.

justice of her cause, but in an insuperable confidence that France was unconquerable—that she could not perish. The speaker affirmed that the immortal words spoken at Verdun, "They shall not pass," formed a concrete essence of the soul of France.

A strong contingent of the professorial body was present in the persons of Professors Morin, Lambert, Segars and Dr. Villard, past honorary president of the Cercle. All of these gentlemen addressed the society, noting the large attendance and the progress made in the study of French.

Following a short informal discussion, the meeting adjourned. It constituted, beyond the question of a doubt, one of the most successful seances of the Cercle Français. Every seat at the table was filled, and a marked enthusiasm characterized the atmosphere of the meeting. Ambitious plans have been formulated by the executive of the Cercle Français for the succeeding meetings, and a successful year is assured for this, one of the most thriving of the small societies of McGill.

There was a young freshman so green,
Who thought that all sophs were just mean;
For when he asked the location
Of the boys' gymnasium,
They soaked the poor frosh on the bean.

THOSE FIFTY CHAPS

Who have the rep among their fellows as always being dolled up to the nines

Not the lads who go around looking as though they couldn't stir for fear they'd break

But the regular fellows—the ones you like to know,

They're the lads who buy their haberdashery from us, for they know a good thing when they see it.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

By Joe Miller.

Harry Routledge was a Freshman. Just an ordinary, unsophisticated Freshman; like you and I were.

Before he came to college, he too had his dreams. In his mind's eye he saw himself appointed Editor-in-Chief of the "Daily," immediately after landing in his first composition. He saw himself elected president of every club in the university; he even had to refuse four or five presidential offices. For his extraordinary merit in the sciences, he saw himself employed (still in his mind's eye) as a demonstrator to sophomore students, and had the pleasure of giving tutorial lectures to those very classical friends of his who used to perplex him with their perfect interpretation of Horace and Virgil.

And, oh! that pretty Miss Blois! For two whole years he had sat behind her in the public school, and had worked arithmetic examples for her, which he did not even understand himself.

But now, he had extricated himself from the "public" and "prep" schools. He was at college. The field of battle lay before him, but the warrior felt weak.

First, he was singled out by the sophs. They recognized their man, with that peculiar recognition that they reserve for all fame-seeking Freshmen. He was among the first to pay the penalty; and among various things, he had to pay his compliments in his pyjamas to pretty Miss Blois, and on St. Catherine. He had hardly recovered from this shock than he was kidnapped, blacked, shampoo'd with vaseline, and whirled through town half-dressed. To say that he was mad, is saying nothing at all. He vowed that as soon as he became president of the forty-eight clubs, he would expel every sophomore, would penalize them, would — do anything and everything that he felt he wasn't capable of doing.

Nor did he fare better with the profs. His ideas did not exactly agree with those of the profs, and somehow he couldn't get them to agree with him. In language altogether unsuitable for infants' ears, they denounced him, his ideas, his methods, and everything connected with him. Added to this, his sweet heroine outstripped him in studies (even in the sciences), and archly proffered him her aid.

Forthwith began his downfall. He withdrew his membership from all the college associations, and instead of moving others with lengthy discourses on the latest scientific developments, he moved himself to educate himself in the most elementary principles of mechanics.

Harry Routledge is now a senior. Just an ordinary sophisticated senior. He no longer builds castles in the air. He attends a dance occasionally, and a club meeting; and is only too glad to be let alone. He wishes for no fame; and, curiously, is better prepared to demonstrate now, than ever before. Just like you and I.

LARGE NUMBER AT CONVERSAT LAST EVENING

Evening Was Appreciated By All.

VOCAL SOLOS.

Men Students and Co-eds. All Meet and Have Very Enjoyable Time.

The lights, the buzz of conversation and the bright dresses of the R.V.C. girls all combined to make the Conversat at the Hall last night a very gay scene. The swish of silk and the creak of stiff collars lent a surreptitious undercurrent to the hum of talk. The Assembly Room, tastefully decorated with red and white, was overflowing. Juniors and Seniors, Sophomores and Freshmen (and Freshettes) all mingled together in amicable discourse. None lost any time in getting their cards and securing partners for the evening.

For those shy and backward persons who are always present at an affair of this sort, there were ten girls and ten men to overcome their bashfulness. And they did their work very ably, for by 8.45 nearly everyone had their programmes full and were engaged in light conversation with their fair co-eds. The smoking-room soon filled with men "balancing their accounts" and planning further campaigns on the susceptibilities of the weaker (?) sex.

After the first change of partners, Mr. Dawson, accompanied by Mr. Howard Nichols, sang a well applauded vocal solo, after which the hum again broke out.

After a short interval, Miss Cox also rendered a solo, which was well appreciated. Miss McLean's orchestra, a newly formed organization, then arrived and rendered a few selections. Mr. McLean then took the floor and gave recitations of some of Drummond's lullaby poems. These proved highly popular with his audience. This was followed by a violin solo by Mr. Wilby.

Soon after the first call for supper came, and there was a simultaneous migration towards the reading-room upstairs, where ice cream and cake were served. Music was provided during these refreshments by means of a gramophone.

After supper, several more selections followed by the orchestra. Then Miss Jackson ably rendered a vocal solo. During all this time people were continuing to flow to and from the dining-room.

On the whole, the "Conversat" was a successful one from every point of view. The attendance was beyond all expectations. Every room on the ground floor was utilized by couples chatting and exchanging experiences. It goes without saying that everybody fully enjoyed themselves, and that all went away feeling that they had had a time that they would not forget easily.

The credit for the success falls mostly, of course, to the McGill Y.M.C.A. But a great deal belongs to the Social Committee who have worked hard and long in arranging all the tedious details connected with the Conversat. This committee consists of the following men:

H. L. Simpson (chairman)
H. G. Ross
Victor Mader
C. A. Mackintosh
J. F. Mackintosh
Howard Elliott
Edgar Duff
Geo. Skinner
Jack Hall
Ross Simpson.

But we wish to draw attention also to the kindness and generosity of Miss McLean, who brought her orchestra to add to the evening's entertainment. Although she has just recently organized her orchestra, she brought it voluntarily to help out the Y.M.C.A. and the "Conversat." The McGill Y.M.C.A. wish to express their appreciation of Miss McLean's generosity.

Nor can we ignore the girls of the R.V.C., for without them a good deal of gaiety would have been lacking. They were chaperoned by Miss Hurlbutt and Mrs. Stevenson.

SHANGHAI'S MIXED COURT.

One of the most remarkable courts of justice in the world has come into being in one of the most curious cities, the international city of Shanghai. The institution is correctly enough called the Mixed Court, and before its justices, says Asia Magazine come "those who speak every dialect from that of Yunnan Province in the south to Kirin in the north." The city is peopled with various nationalities, each foreign individual, under the extra-territorial powers that China ceded to foreign powers when the international city was established, being subject to such court proceedings as are customary in his own country.

But in addition to the foreign population, Shanghai now holds more than 500,000 Chinese, assembled from all over the country, and a Chinese court for the Chinese is impracticable because the administration of justice in China is carried out in many local ways instead of according to one universal practice. The Mixed Court, one might say for mixed Chinese, is presided over by two magistrates, one Chinese and the other a foreigner; on Monday, Wednesday and Friday the British assessor, as he is called, sits with the Chinese magistrate; on Tuesday and Thursday the American assessor; and on Saturday the Japanese. Thus both foreigners and Chinese are represented; foreigners from other nations being represented by their national assessors when a case involves their interests. The Mixed Court has jurisdiction over all civil actions between Chinese in Shanghai and between Chinese and foreigners. It is a mixed court indeed, for every variety of petty crime and petty Chinese criminal comes before it; but it is said to be setting an example in court procedure that is very much needed in simplifying the miscellaneous methods of administering justice that have grown up by tradition in the widely separated provinces.

SECOND TEAM GAME.
Queens Intermediates will appear against the McGill second rugby squad at the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium on Saturday morning in the first game of a series of home and home fixtures to decide the rugby championship of the Intermediates of McGill, Queens and R. M. C. The Tri-Color won on points against R. M. C. at Kingston, coming out on top by a small margin in two games. The winner of the McGill-Queens seconds fixtures, which is decided on total points, will play off in a second section of the Intercollegiate Intermediate League for the championship. The return game with Queens will be played at Kingston some time next week according to present plans, which have not yet been definitely settled. The McGill second squad has been going strong all season and although it has not featured in any matches is confident that it can cope with the honors in the coming struggle with the Presbyterianans.

ROOTERS! WE MEET TO-DAY

Final Practice Will Be Held At the Hall at 5.15.

Rooters! Hall, mighty horde! To-night we meet for a final practice, and to-morrow we show Queen's what a football and a yell is like. Strathcona Hall will resound to the tremendous sounds of human voices in unison and unison with inanimate brass-pieces.

You all know what "Chub" Lo-Barron looks like when he gets mad at his "piece." Well, just up to hear and help the rest of these mighty noise-makers, the Rooters' Bandmen.

We need hardly dwell upon the use, nay, absolute necessity, of a final "wind-up" before we meet to lick Queen's. Let us be able to say on Monday, with regard to Queen's, "Oh, what a fall there was."

With us, rooters, lies the power to make the day victorious or vice versa. Which shall it be?

Answer in arithmetic only, by repairing to the Strathcona Hall at 5.15 sharp.

Shanghai now holds more than 500,000 Chinese, assembled from all over the country, and a Chinese court for the Chinese is impracticable because the administration of justice in China is carried out in many local ways instead of according to one universal practice. A SESSION OF THE COURT OF KING'S BENCH (Crown Side) holding Criminal Jurisdiction in and for the Corporation of McGill University will be held in the Court House of the Corporation of McGill University on Wednesday, the 3rd day of November 1920, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

In consequence I give PUBLIC NOTICE to all who intend to proceed against any prisoners now in the Common Gaol of the said Corporation and all others that they must be present then and there; and I also give notice to all Justices of the Peace, Coroners and Peace Officers, in and for the said Corporation, that they must be present then and there with their records, rolls, indictments and other documents in order to do those things which belong to them in their respective capacities.

IMPERIALS AND WEST AT RUGBY

Two McGill English Rugby Squads Will Play This Afternoon.

English Rugby players will get into the second game of their University League when the Western team bucks into the Imperials this afternoon at the Old Campus at 4.00 o'clock sharp. The West lost a hard-fought game to the Easterners earlier in the week, and will be out this afternoon to take their revenge on the Old Country players. The men from overseas have no mean team, and promise to make the breezy players from the other side of the continent step out to win the game. Westerners will appear in Red and White and the Imperials in Blue or Blue and White uniforms.

The two teams are as follows: Imperials: Backs — Bradshaw, Tucker, Branch, Murray, Johnson, Thomas and Cooper. Forwards — Palmer, Wilson, Patterson, Blundell, Roope, Adams, Atkinson, Carlyle, Spares — Duncan, Harwood.

Westerners: Backs — Branchley, Nichol, MacDougall, Curtis, Hempken, Jones, Whidden, Kemp. Forwards — Jones, Forrester, Shore, Mitchell, Whiteside, Lochhead, Beveridge.

Referee — G. Darby.

HISTORIC JUNIOR DANCE ARRANGED FOR NOVEMBER 26th

Expected That Sir Arthur Currie Will Be Present—Other Distinguished Guests To Be Invited — Juniors May Subscribe Soon.

Arrangements have now been completed for the holding of one big social event of the first term at McGill—the Junior dance. Elaborate details are already well under way, and it is expected that November 26th, the date which precedent has set aside for the Juniors from time immemorial, will prove this year one long to be remembered by the class.

The dance, which will be one of the three formal ones which have been sanctioned by the Committee on Social Functions, will, as usual, be held in the ball room of the Union. The whole building will be specially decorated throughout with colored lights, flags and flowers. In addition several innovations, the nature of which will be kept secret until the date of the dance has been arranged. The subscription list will be opened almost immediately to members of the Junior year through their faculty representatives. It is not yet known whether there will be any tickets available to other years as the number to be put on sale will be strictly limited. However, no tickets will be held for members of the year later than November 8th. After this date the sale will be open to outsiders.

Further details with regard to tickets will be made public through the medium of the "Daily" in the near future.

It is expected that Principal Sir Arthur Currie will be present. A number of other distinguished guests representing the various faculties as well as the Graduate Society and other organizations connected with the University have been invited.

Dean: "What is density?" Hansen: "I can't define it, but I can give you an illustration." Dean: "The illustration is good, sit down."—nob. Awgwan.

ROOTERS' CLUB SONGS AND YELLS

Please cut these out and bring them to the games as it may be impossible to find space for them in subsequent editions.

We're the boys that make no noise.
Haw. Haw. Haw
McGill.

Tune — TAMMANY.
James McGill!
James McGill!
Peacefully he slumbers
there.
Blissful though we're on a
"tear."

James McGill!
James McGill!
He's our father, well yes,
rather,
James McGill.

Tune — TAKE ME TO
THE LAND OF JAZZ
Take me to the land of Jazz, Let me hear the kind of blues that Memphis had.
I want to step a tune that's full of ginger and pep,
Pick 'em up and lay 'em
down,
Learn to do the Raz-ma-taz,
Let me give you a warning,
We won't get home until morning,
Cause everybody's full of Jazzbo
In the loving land of Jazz.

Give 'em the axe, the axe,
Give 'em the axe, the axe,
Where?
Right in the neck.
Right in the neck.
There!
The axe, the axe, 3 then 4
times, ending with Mc-Gill yell, and faster towards end.

One! Two! Three! Four!
Two! Four! Forty four!
Who are you going to yell
for?
M—C—G—I—L—L
That's the way you spell it,
And this is how you yell it,
McGill !!!

HAIL! ALMA MATER
Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thee praise,
Great our affection; tho'
feeble our lays;
Nestling so peaceful and calm 'neath the hill;
Fondly we love thee, our
dear old McGill.

COME FILL YOUR GLASSES UP.
Come fill your glasses up
To McGill, McGill, McGill,
Come drink a loving cup
To McGill, McGill, McGill,
We will drink the wine tonight,
Drink the wine that makes hearts light,
Come fill your glasses up
To McGill, McGill, McGill.
Come sing a joyous song,
To McGill, McGill, McGill.
Sing as we march along
To McGill, McGill, McGill.
We will rally on the field,
We will make our rivals
yield,
Vict'ry shall crown the Shield
To McGill, McGill, McGill.

Tune of K-K-K Katy.
K-K-K- Kootie,
Horrible Kootie,
Your the only, only bug that I abhor,
But when the team goes
Over their dead line,
We will yell until we get a Hundred more.

Tune—PUT ON YOUR OLD GREY BONNET.
Put on your Red and White sweater
For you have none better,
And we'll open up another keg of beer.
It is not for knowledge that we came to college,
But to raise H— all the year.

I diddle I di
Give the dog a bone.
Hee Haw—Hee Haw
Haw, Haw.

There ain't no flies on us,
There ain't no flies on us,
There may be flies on some of you guys,
But there are no flies on us.

Tune — SILVER BELL.
(Key F)
We want a touchdown,
Hit that line;
Just a little touchdown,
Will be damm fine.
We'll kill that hoodoo
And bury it to-night,
We want a touchdown, so Fight! Fight! Fight!

Tune—MY LITTLE GIRL
(Key C).
Old McGill, you know we love you,
And we're out to win today.
The red flag will wave above you
When the ball goes into play.
Plow a lane right through Toronto,
Make their ball team all ill
On every down they have to yield boys,
To the boys from old Mc-Gill.

Tune — HOLD ME.
(Key C).
Hold 'em, roll 'em right

through the field.
On with the ball for a try.
Bear on, tear on till they shall yield.
McGill's out to die
So hustle right on, fight to victory,
For we have to win to-day.
So rip right in, for we're out to win
With a biff-bang zip Hurrah!

Kick her high,
Tackle low,
Are you ready?
Let 'er go,
Followed by McGill yell.

YELL.
We gotcha, we gotcha,
We gotcha, Varsity.
We'll shout and fight for the Red and White
In the honor of M—C—G.
Ripperty, rapperty,
Ripperty, rapperty ree.
We gotcha, we gotcha,
We gotcha, Varsitee.

Che Hee. Che Haw,
Che Hee. Haw, Haw,
Jeff. Old boy.
(Slowly).

Tune—YANKEE DOODLE
Varsity once had a team
They thought no one could beat them
They played McGill and found That Old McGill could eat them.

Chorus—
M—C—G—I—double L
(Repeat three times).
That's the team that beat
them.

Tune — HAMBURGH SHOW.

Oh, we're going to the football game
To see the McGill boys trim
Old Queens,
Old Queens,
And we'll all stick together
in all kinds of weather
For we're going to see them trim Old Queens.

Tune—JOHN BROWN'S Body.

We're goin' to knock the devil out of yonder Var-
sitee,
We're goin' to make them hop and run and dance a jamboree,
We're goin' to show the dears what husky men are we,
When we meet Var-sit-tee!

Rifferty, rifferty, riff, raff, Chifferty, chifferty, chiff,
chaff,
Lets give them a horse
laugh—
Haw! Haw!

When you're up you're up,
When you're down you're
down,
When you're up against the
Red and White
You're up side down.

Varsity!
Aren't you ever coming back
No never!
What! never
No never.

Tune — ALOUETTE.
Oh Queens we'll get you
yet
Oh Queens we'll trim you well
And your pride will take a fall
When we rid you of the ball
And your grit, and your spunk, and your gall
Chorus—
Oh-h-h-h-h Queens we will get you yet
Yes you bet we will get you
yet.

Tune — "ALICE BLUE Gown."
In their sweaters of Old
Red and White,
They will put up a jolly
good fight,
They're proud but not shy,

McGILL—QUEEN'S GAME PROMISES GREAT ACTION

practice, it is certain that there will be several changes on the squad over last week and that the team which stacks up against the Presbyterians will be ready to walk off the gridiron at the end of the game on the long end of the score.

Yesterday the squad put in one of the best work-outs seen at the Stadium this week. Thankful for a fairly dry ground and bright sunshine after Wednesday's deluge, the players went at their work with a vim, and the senior squad in its lineups with the second and third teams had little trouble in making plenty of big holes through which the ball-carriers filtered with ease. Seldom this season has the first squad made openings so well as was done yesterday, and the practice augurs well for to-morrow's match.

Rooters promise to provide a great feature on Saturday, when "Teedles" and his gang, accompanied by the club band, will be on deck to cheer on the team and generally put pep into the afternoon's proceedings. The Rooters have been assigned to a special block of seats, tickets for which will be sold at the club practice this evening.

CLOWNS AND ACTORS.

All men appointed by the cheer leader to act as comedians in the football games will please be down at Rooters' Club practice to-night.
The suits are all ready and we want to see that they fit. Any fellow who feels he could give the folks a laugh on Saturday at the game should see the cheer leader who will be only too glad to cut him loose. Immediately after the practice the suits will be fitted on and a rehearsal will be held.
Bring your ideas and help along.

As they feel every eye,
Of the grandstand upon
them,
They must do or die.
As a form of politeness
they'll all,
Not let visitors carry the ball.
While in matters of rooting,
We'll do all the tooting,
In our sweaters of old Red and White.

Tune — "AND HE'D SAY OO-LA-LA, WEE WEE."

They'd say: "What will you do to us?"
And We'd say: "Just you
wait and see."
They'd smile and whisper:
"Lick us you won't."
We'd answer: "We'll be darned if we don't."
They'd say: "Won't you be nice to us,
So we can gain a victory."
They would exclaim:
"You'll not beat us today."
We'd say: "However do you get that way?"
Then they'd say: "What will you do to us?"
And we'd say: "Just you
wait and see."

Tune — "OH, HELEN."
Oh, Shag! Oh, Shag! Oh,
Shaughnessy,
you're fine,
You all, you all, you always seem to shine.
You know, you know, you know we all like you.
Oh! Shag. Oh, Shag. Oh!
Shaughnessy we do.

Bing! Bing! Bing! Bing!
etc.
Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!
etc.
Whistle
McGill

Get that ball, McGill!
Get that ball, McGill!
Get that ball, McGill!
You got to get it.

Whizz-z-z
Bang.
Followed by McGill yell.

Pep! Pep!
Come on fellows — a little more pep.
Run! Kick! Fight! Throw!
We are with you,
Let's go.
